An Acting Seminar for Masons

Led by: Brother Greg Sudmeier, 32^o

Cost: None (Lunch will be available for a donation of $10)

Dress: Business Casual

Restriction: Master Masons only

As Masons, we learn and hold ancient and universal truths in our heart, and communicating these principles and traditions are profoundly important to all who would join our fraternal order. Every time an initiate receives any of the degrees it is imperative to help them experience the depth of the meaning of the text. These crucial moments of experience can last more than a lifetime; especially if we, as cast members, make that experience as real and truthful as possible. Achieving this sacred goal requires a good working knowledge of basic acting principles; speaking our memorized words from a core of conviction that hits the emotional center of the initiates just like any and every compelling actor affects the hearts of their own audiences.

If you were present this past July 7th for the stated meeting of the Valley of Atlanta you enjoyed an outstanding Celebration of Independence, produced and directed by Brother Greg "Suds" Sudmeier. Take advantage of this opportunity to learn techniques for
